Re: Pratt & Whitney Submission on EgyptAir flight 990

Mr. Phillips,

Pratt & Whitney appreciates the opportunity to provide a submission on the proposed conclusions, recommendations, and probable cause of the EgyptAir flight 990 crash. However, Pratt & Whitney feels the facts, as gathered to date, sufficiently represent Pratt & Whitney's perspective on this crash. Therefore, Pratt & Whitney will not be providing a further submission to be considered during the development of the final report.

Please contact me should you have any questions.

Best Regards,

Michael Barron
